

Chabad of the Upper East Side 4th Annual Concert & Auction

Raffle Prize Donation

- ◆ Support education
- ◆ Promote your company
- ◆ Reinvest in the community
- ◆ Associate your company name with community service

Chabad of the Upper East Side is proud to announce its 4th annual concert and auction at the Museum of Jewish Heritage, on Sunday March 6, 2011. This fabulous, fun and memorable evening will begin with an elegant reception and viewing, followed by musical entertainment and conclude with drawings of the winning raffle tickets.

We ask you to please join us in our effort, especially in these trying times, to raise the much needed funds to support and expand our wide array of educational and community programs that touch thousands on the Upper East Side. Chabad's programs include a state of the art preschool, adult education classes, programs for children with special needs, counseling, hospital visitations and more.

We invite you to contribute by donating a prize for our spring auction. The auction will attract five hundred attendees; thousands more will receive a full color auction catalog in the mail, featuring all the prizes. In addition many more will have the opportunity to participate online via our auction web site. Your donation has a fixed cost but the exposure, the name recognition and the good will your generous and tax deductible donation will generate, is priceless.

Your consideration of donating or sponsoring an item for our auction is greatly appreciated!

Items valued at over $500 will be prominently featured in our auction catalog.

To donate, please complete a prize donation form for each item donated and fax to (212) 879-7612.

In the name of the thousands of adults and children who are benefiting from Chabad of the Upper East Side's programs, I want to thank you for your contribution!
